RECREATIONAL SOCCER - If you love soccer but are looking for an experience that's a little more laid back than classic, then this is the program for you.

RECREATIONAL OR CLASSIC SOCCER?
After PK-2 Rec Soccer, players may choose to stay in Rec soccer or jump to the more competitive PDP Program.

CLASSIC PATH

PDP or PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM - The PDP Program is comprised of kids that want to prepare for classic soccer or just want a more competitive experience than recreational soccer offers.

CLASSIC SOCCER - Classic soccer is more competitive than recreational soccer. It is also more of a time and money commitment. Classic soccer has both a fall AND spring season. Oregon City and Canby merge to form OTFC Classic

HIGH SCHOOL SOCCER - Players attending high school may try out and play for their school team.

OTFC WINTER

WINTER CLASSIC - High School players join OTFC for club soccer. Oregon City and Canby merge to form OTFC

RECREATIONAL OR CLASSIC SOCCER? - All players play PK-2 Rec soccer. Going into second or third grade players may decide to register for the PDP program which is more competitive than recreational soccer. At any time in a player's soccer career they may decide to try out for classic soccer OR go back to recreational soccer from classic. Classic try outs are always in early May and that is when you can make a switch. The longer a player waits to tryout for Classic soccer the harder it may be to make a classic team.
